

About OX

OX and their vision of powerful, handmade rock music with memorable choruses and modern sounds can be found somewhere between alternative rock, post-grunge and alternative metal. Hard riffs and melodic choruses, packed into catchy yet always musically interesting songs, are the trademarks with which the band has created its own identity.

The band was founded in 2015 by songwriter, singer and guitarist Simon Ochs in Karlsruhe. Drummer Max Siegmund, bassist Niklas Reinfandt and guitarist Nadir Zee complete the band's line-up, which has remained consistent ever since. Just one year after their formation, OX released their first studio album "Rewind to Overwrite", covering a wide stylistic variety. After numerous club gigs in southern Germany and a tour of Eastern Europe (Poland, Czech Republic and Slovakia) lasting several weeks, the second studio album "Breaking Point" was finally released in 2019.

OX then took advantage of the pandemic-induced break to embark on a new artistic direction, now expanding and combining the alternative rock of their first two albums as well as their love for the rock music of the early 2000s with modern sounds and elements from alternative metal. The first major result of this new direction is the EP "State of Change", on which OX presents itself as creative and playful as never before.

Currently the band is performing their new songs live on various stages (including opening for Kissin' Dynamite and Doro at the Seebühne rockt! Festival 2024). At the same time, work has begun on OX's third album, with the first singles due to be released in early 2025.

Facts

Genre : Alternative rock, Post-grunge, Alternative metal

Based : Karlsruhe, Germany

Live set : 30 - 70 minutes

Line-up : 4 members

Music

(Link to Spotify)

Real to You (2022)

Darkest Days (2022)

One Step Away (2022)

Or listen to State of Change (EP) on

Soundcloud

Videos

(Link to YouTube)

Official videos:

Real to You (2022)

Wide Open (2022)

One Step Away (2022)

Live videos:

Darkest Days \(Live at Seebühne rockt! 2024\)

Real to You \(Live at Jubez 2023\)

Wide Open \(Live at Jubez 2023\)

Links

Homepage

Spotify

YouTube

Facebook

Instagram

TikTok

Press voices

"...With their State of Change EP, they have bolstered their armory of songs and have certainly started a small revolution that may grow into a colossal one."
- TunedUp, 19.10.2022 (online article)-

"OX are back with their new EP State Of Change, creating a sound that sounds like a mixture of Godsmack, Staind, Seether and Breaking Benjamin. The five-song EP sounds like a lot of things, but certainly not like a German band, and that's exactly what's behind State Of Change"
- Frontstage Magazin (zum Artikel) -

"...With "Real To You", the southern German newcomers now prove once again that their courageous decision to shift genres has clearly paid off."
- Morecore, 03.06.2022 (online article) -

"...OX show themselves on their second album matured, consolidated and accordingly rightly self-confident.[...] ...and that is hereby more than a recommendation for "Breaking Point".
- Stark!Strom, 2020 (Print) -

"...irresistible hit-heavy [...] listen, feel, fall into ecstasy with "Rewind to Overwrite". Go! Now!"
- Streetclip.tv, 29.02.2016 (online article) -

Discography

„Rewind to Overwrite“

(Album, 2015)

„Breaking Point“

(Album, 2019)

„Blame The Fallen“ und „Another One To Care“

(Singles, 2021, 2022)

„State of Change“

(EP, 2022)

Contact & Booking

OX-Management

Nadir Zee II Niklas Reinfandt

tel: +49 176 728 897 69

mail: info@ox-music.com

mail: booking@ox-music.com

More info (Technical rider, band pics, logo etc.):

www.ox-music.com/press